SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 14) Defendant shall provide the supervising officer with access to any requested financial information, including authorization to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of Defendant's Federal income tax returns. Defendant shall disclose all assets and liabilities to the supervising officer. Defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset, without the advance approval of the supervising officer.
- 15) Defendant shall not incur any new debt, open additional lines of credit, or enter into any financial contracts, without the advance approval of the supervising officer.
- *16) Defendant shall participate in the home confinement program for 180 days. Defendant shall abide by all the requirements of the program, which will include electronic monitoring or other location verification system. Defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the program based upon your ability to pay. Defendant is restricted to defendant's residence every day from 9 p.m. to 6 a.m., or as directed by the supervising officer.
- 17) Defendant shall contribute 10 percent of defendant's income to any balance owed for location monitoring services. The supervising probation officer may petition the Court on defendant's behalf to modify this requirement if it presents an undue financial hardship.
- 18) Defendant shall complete a mental health evaluation and follow any treatment recommendations of the evaluating professional which do not require forced or psychotropic medication and/or inpatient confinement absent further order of the Court. Defendant shall allow reciprocal release of information between the supervising officer and treatment provider. Defendant shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to defendant's ability to pay.
- 19) Defendant shall submit defendant's person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a U.S. probation officer, at a sensible time and manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. Defendant shall warn persons with whom defendant shares a residence that the premises may be subject to search.
- 20) Defendant shall undergo a substance abuse evaluation and, if indicated by a licensed/certified treatment provider, enter into and successfully complete an approved substance abuse treatment program, which could include inpatient treatment and aftercare. Defendant shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to defendant's ability to pay. Defendant shall allow full reciprocal disclosure between the supervising officer and treatment provider.
- 21) Defendant shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to testing (which may include urinalysis or sweat patch), as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.
- 22) Defendant shall abstain from alcohol and shall submit to testing (including urinalysis and Breathalyzer), as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from this substance.
- 23) Defendant shall not enter into or remain in any establishment where alcohol is the primary item of sale.
- 24) Defendant shall register as a sex offender, according to the laws of the state in which defendant resides, is employed, or are attending school. Defendant shall provide verification of compliance with this requirement to the supervising officer.
